5 MAYOR'S SPEECH

Mayor Jos Mitchell delivered her Post-Election speech:

Good afternoon everyone,

Welcome to my first meeting, and the first meeting for the new Council.

Congratulations once again to all of my fellow Councillors on your election and re-election to Redland City Council.

I would like to thank everyone for their decision to seek to represent, and continue representing, our community - and for some, I know that has been long standing. Your diligence and dedication to our community has extended over many years, so I thank you.

It is no mean feat to be sitting around this table, and we all bring knowledge and skills to share.

Thank you to the staff members who work to deliver for our city every day. Having worked on that side of the table, I know the commitment it takes to deliver projects and programs for our community. Valuing our staff, and the corporate knowledge they build upon, is an important aspect to working together effectively. Similarly, respect for the office of the elected representatives ensures we have the voice of our community represented in Council business.

Our Redland community is amazing. I spent 14 months out in the community, every day, and we are surrounded by supportive and uplifting people who have a vast amount of expertise. They are ready and willing to share it.

Our collective Council is here to work for our community. It is not an easy undertaking. It is important to acknowledge the sheer volume of work that has been done by staff to deliver services and infrastructure continuously.

Obviously, like everything in life, there are aspects of Council's function that can be improved and with every iteration of the elected Council, which is the voice of the community, that is the goal.

With that in mind, it is my greatest wish that we all work together to do what our community has elected us to do and that is to ensure the functions of Council are met in the best way possible and we provide the strategic direction, with our community's input, that will assist our local government area to manage and accommodate necessary growth and innovation, while balancing and protecting the lifestyle we love.

I am looking forward to working with everyone to ensure we get good outcomes across our local government area this term.

Thank you to our community. Thank you to our staff members, and thank you to the elected Councillors for being part of Redland City Council.
